"91. In these Gur Hedge Contracts, if the seller-wishes to give delivery he will on 4th, 5th or 6th of the Delivery

Month inform the Company by 4 P.M., by sending the Delivery Order to the office of the Company specifically stating the site of each godown, godown number and the name of owner of the godown (if it is on rent) and the number of Kattas contained in each godown. The Company shall send these delivery orders to the Buyer/s the same evening. If any of the buyer/s is not available that evening, the Delivery orders will be deemed to have been accepted on the same date, though may be delivered the following day by 12 Noon. The Buyer/s, after depositing 25% of the value of the goods, will inspect the quality of the goods tendered within 48 hours, if the goods are in Meerut and if the goods are in the Mandies mentioned in Schedule 'A' the buyer is allowed only one day for each Out-station Delivery Centre (Mandi) to inspect the quality of the goods. If the goods are under lock-and-key of any Bank, the seller shall arrange for the key and the buyer shall inspect the goods on any working day between 10 A.M. and 4 P.M. No excuse, that the key is in the Bank, will be entertained. If there is any dispute in respect of the quality of the goods, survey regarding Meerut goods will be completed within two days and if the goods are in Out-station Delivery Centres (Mandies) mentioned in Schedule 'A', one day for survey of goods for each Mandi shall be allowed. On acceptance of the quality of goods by the buyer and on completion of survey the buyer shall take delivery of the goods within 3 days. Full payment for the quantity of the goods to be delivered on the very day shall be deposited with the Company (of course the already deposited advance @ 25% will be adjustable in the payment). The Special Margin money, if any deposited in the Company, will be adjusted in the payment of the goods to be delivered. The payment to the seller shall be made by the Company according to the quantity delivered by the seller to the buyer.

- (a) (i) If the seller had issued the delivery order, but had failed to give the delivery of the goods for whatever reason, then the seller shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kg.) to the buyer.

- (ii) If the seller had issued the delivery order and had tendered the goods against it, but the goods were rejected in survey, then the seller shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kg.) to the buyer.

- (iii) If the seller, holding an outstanding sales position during the delivery period, had not issued the delivery order, but had agreed or was prevailed upon by the Exchange to give the delivery of the goods to a buyer (who had issued or not issued the demand notice), but had failed to give the delivery of the goods, then the seller shall pay a penalty of Re. 1/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 2.50 per 100 kg.) to the buyer.

- (b) If the seller or his agent does not give the delivery of the goods as indicated in (a) above, then the buyer or his agent shall apply in writing within 24 hours to the office of the Exchange regarding the same. On receipt of such application, an officer of the Exchange accompanied by the buyer or his representative shall go and enquire whether the goods against the delivery order in question or the oral commitment as indicated in clause (a) (iii) above, are lying with the seller or his agent. At the time of such enquiry, the seller or his representative, or his agent, who may be present, shall have to point out the goods. Previous intimation in such enquiry shall be given to the seller or his agent. The officer shall go for such enquiry between 11 A.M. and 5 P.M. If the officer is satisfied that the seller has not sufficient goods to tender against the delivery order in question or the oral commitment as indicated in clause (a) (iii) above, he will give a certificate to the buyer for such insufficient goods, and the seller shall pay the difference between the rate of the delivery order and the due date rate. This is in addition to the penalty required to be paid by the seller to the buyer as indicated in clause (a) above. In case the difference between the rate of the delivery order and the due date rate is in favour of the seller, the seller is not entitled to ask for the same.

"92. Similarly if the buyer wants to take delivery he will inform the Company in writing on 4th, 5th or 6th of Delivery Months by 4 P.M. about his intention to demand delivery alongwith remittance of 25% value of the goods demanded. The Company will send these demand order/s to the seller/s the same evening. But if any of the seller/s is not available that evening, they shall have to accept these demand order/s by 12 Noon the following day (in the previous date). The seller shall inform the buyer, within 48 hours about the exact location of the goods stored, number/s of the godown/s and name of the owners of the godown/s, if they are on rent, if the goods are at Meerut and the name of the stockist in case if the goods are in outstation delivery centres (Mandies) mentioned in Schedule 'A'. The buyer will inspect the goods within 48 hours if the goods are in Meerut. In case the goods are in Mandies mentioned in Schedule 'A', he shall be allowed only one day for each Mandi to inspect the goods. If the buyer does not inspect the goods within the specified period the quality to the goods shall be treated as tenderable. But if on inspection of the goods there is any dispute about the quality both the parties will get the goods surveyed according to the Survey Rules of the Company Bye-laws, within 48 hours if the goods are in Meerut. And if the goods are in Mandies mentioned in Schedule 'A'. One day for each Mandi will be given for survey. After the goods have been surveyed and passed by the Survey Committee or after acceptance of the quality of the goods by the buyer, the buyer shall take delivery of the goods within 3 days. The payment of the goods will be deposited with the Company on the date of delivery, before hand, and the already paid advance of 25% shall be adjusted in payment, according to the quality delivered. The special margin, if any deposited, will also be adjustable in the payment. On completion of delivery the Company will pay to the seller the payment of the goods delivered to the buyer.

(a) (i) If the buyer had issued the demand notice, but had failed to take the delivery of the goods for whatever reason, then the buyer shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kg.) to the seller.

(ii) If the buyer had issued the demand notice and the goods tendered against it by the seller were approved in survey, but the buyer had not taken or refused to take the delivery of the goods, then the buyer shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kg.) to the seller.

(iii) If the buyer, holding an outstanding purchase position during the delivery period, had not issued the demand notice, but had agreed or was prevailed upon by the Exchange to take the delivery of the goods from a seller (who has issued or not issued the delivery order) but has failed to take the delivery of the goods, then the buyer shall pay a penalty of Rs. 1/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 2.50 per 100 kg.) to the seller.

(b) If the buyer does not take the delivery of the goods against the demand notice in question or the oral commitment as indicated in (a) (iii) above, then the seller shall make an application on the next day thereafter in writing to the Exchange with the details of the goods etc. On receipt of such application from the seller, the Exchange shall immediately notify to the buyer of the same and in the absence of a satisfactory reply within 24 hours thereof the Exchange shall intimate to the seller that he (Seller) would be entitled to sell the goods in the open market on account of and at the risk of the buyer. Such sale by the seller shall be done in the presence of an officer of the Exchange. In selling the goods on account of and at the risk of the buyer, if the seller makes any profit, the buyer shall not be entitled to receive the same from the seller. This is in addition to the penalty that the buyer is required to pay to the seller as indicated in clause (a) above. But if there be any loss to the seller, he shall be entitled to recover the same from the buyer as also the expenses incurred for the sale in addition to the aforesaid penalty.

NOTIFICATION BY THE BOMBAY OILSEEDS AND OILS EXCHANGE LTD., BOMBAY

The approval of the Deputy Director, Forward Markets Commission under Sub-Section (1) of the Section 11 of the Forward Contracts Regulation Act, 1952 (74 of 1952), read with the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry Notification No. S.O. 1162 dated the 4th May 1960, has been obtained on the 10th Feb. 1966 to the following amendments made to the Bye-laws of the Bombay Oilseeds and Oils Exchange Ltd., Bombay the same having been notified under Section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954.

AMENDMENTS

In the said Bye-laws—

1. Bye-law 119 shall be deleted.

2. In Bye-law 145 the following shall be added at the end :—

"The seller or his muccadam or his agent or his representative who is in charge of the godown at which the concerned goods are stored shall point out to the last buyer or his representative or his agent, the concerned goods in respect of delivery orders issued by the first seller, provided the last buyer or his representative or his agent, as the case may be, produces an authority letter from the last buyer for such inspection of goods prior to the presentation of the actual delivery orders. If the last buyer's representative or agent on such inspection finds that the goods are not ready or sufficient, he shall intimate his findings, in writing, to the last buyer. Either on receipt of the verification report from his representative or his agent or the last buyer himself finds that the goods are not ready or sufficient, the last buyer shall be entitled to apply, in writing, to the Exchange, to send the officer of the Exchange for inspection of concerned goods. The Exchange, on receipt of such application from the last buyer and subject to the last buyer having deposited the necessary amount as provided in the Bye-laws immediately he is declared as the last buyer, shall arrange to send its officer along with the buyer or his representative for inspection of the goods and also inform the first seller about such proposed inspection. The Officer of the Exchange shall thereupon submit an inspection report and such report shall be final and binding to both the parties concerned and cannot be challenged in a Court of Law. The seller or his representative or his representative or his agent shall extend necessary facility to the representative of the Exchange to inspect the goods and if the seller or his representative refuses or fails to point out and identify the goods, such refusal or failure shall be tantamount to failure to give delivery. The representative of the Exchange shall be entitled to such inspection at the godown of the seller at any time between the hours of 10.0 a.m. and 6.0 p.m. Such goods as have been shown to and duly inspected by the Officer of the Exchange shall be kept intact till the time the last buyer takes physical delivery of the goods."

3. In Bye-law 149, the first sentence beginning with "The seller shall", shall be substituted by the following :—

Bye-law 149 :

"The seller shall give delivery of goods at such upcountry centre from a godown or a place under one roof over it and location of such godown or place shall be clearly indicated in the delivery order by specifying the godown number if available or identifying the location by giving sufficient address. If the delivery orders are issued on the due date, the seller shall within 2 working days of the closure of the market on the due date furnish sufficient address for identification of the godown mentioned in the delivery orders to the buyers, if the same is not already given in the delivery orders concerned."

4. Bye-law 157 shall be substituted by the following in its place and stead :—

Bye-law 157

"Where delivery of goods is given by the seller to the buyer outside the State of Maharashtra, the seller shall deduct from the price mentioned in the relative delivery order an amount equivalent to Sales Tax and Octroi leviable for delivery of goods at Bombay and in return the seller will be entitled to recover from the buyer Sales Tax and/or collect declaration in any form as may have been prescribed at the centre of delivery for his sale to his last buyer according to the provisions of the relevant Sales Tax Law in force from time to time.

The seller shall however, pay all kinds of other local, provincial and State Cess and/or duties, Octroi etc."

5. After the new Bye-law 183A, the following shall be added as Bye-law 183 B.

Bye-law 1983 B :

"In the event of the seller failing to give the delivery or the buyer becoming entitled to reject the goods tendered by the seller against the contract as provided above, the buyer shall make an application on the next working day thereafter, in writing, to the Exchange with details of the goods, delivery orders, etc. On receipt of such application from the buyer, the Exchange shall immediately notify to the seller of the same and in absence of satisfactory reply within 24 hours thereof, the Exchange shall intimate to the buyer that he (buyer) would be entitled to buy the goods in the open market on account and at the risk of the seller. On making such purchases, from the open market, the buyer shall give intimation of the same to the seller, in writing, and in such event, the buyer shall be entitled to receive from the seller the difference, if any, between the rate at which he has made the actual purchase from the open market and the rate in the delivery order or the due date rate, as may be applicable, as also the expenses incurred for the purchase. The seller, however, shall not be entitled to receive from the buyer the difference between the rates as stated above, if the rate is in his (seller's) favour."
